This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that conflicts of interest at Marylebone Academy are managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations and reflects centre practice.

Reference in the policy to GR relates to relevant sections of the current JCQ document General Regulations for Approved Centres.

Introduction

It is the responsibility of the head of centre to ensure that Marylebone Academy has in place for inspection a written conflicts of interest policy that must be reviewed and updated annually. This policy confirms that Marylebone Academy:

Manages conflicts of interest by informing the awarding bodies, before the published deadline for entries for each examination series, of:

- any members of centre staff who are taking qualifications at their own centre which include internally assessed components/units
- any members of centre staff who are teaching and preparing members of their family (which includes step-family, foster family and similar close relationships) or close friends and their immediate family (e.g. son/daughter) for qualifications which include internally assessed components/units (This requirement also extends to centre staff conducting internally assessed or externally assessed Speaking, Listening or Oracy components/units)

maintains internal records of all instances where:

- exams office staff have members of their family (which includes step-family, foster family and similar close relationships) or close friends and their immediate family (e.g. son/daughter) being entered for examinations and assessments either at the centre itself or other centres
- centre staff are taking qualifications at their own centre which do not include internally assessed components/units
- centre staff are taking qualifications at other centres (GR 5.3)

Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to confirm how Marylebone Academy manages conflicts of interest under normal delivery arrangements in accordance with the regulations.

General principles

A process is in place to Collect signed declaration of interest forms from staff via email. from All centre staff to Identify and manage any potential conflicts of interest

Declaration process

At the beginning of the academic year, staff are emailed a Conflicts of Interest Form which needs to be completed by the pre-determined deadline and emailed back to the Exams Officer.

Managing conflicts of interest

The Exams Officer keeps a log of the forms once received.

The relevant awarding body/bodies is/are informed (where required by the nature of the conflict) of specific conflicts of interest before the published deadline for entries for each examination series by identifying and following the individual awarding body's administrative process.

Roles and responsibilities

The role of the head of centre is to ensure:

- conflicts of interest are managed according to the requirements in General Regulations for Approved Centres (5.3)
- internal records are maintained and that the records include details of the measures taken to mitigate any potential risk to the integrity of the qualifications affected
- the records are available where they may be requested by a JCQ Centre Inspector and/or awarding body staff

- the records are retained until the deadline for reviews of marking has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later
- that entering members of centre staff for qualifications at this centre is as a last resort in cases where the member of centre staff is unable to find another centre
- that proper protocols are in place to prevent the member of centre staff having access to examination materials prior to the examination and that other centre staff are briefed on maintaining the integrity and confidentiality of the examination materials
- that during the examination series the member of centre staff is treated in the same way as any other candidate entered for that examination, does not have access to examination materials and does not receive any preferential treatment
